

GARY ROSS
Curriculum Vitae
1620 L Street NW, Washington, DC 20036
Email: ross@dmgs.org

CURRENT AFFILIATIONS

Daniel Morgan Graduate School Assistant Professor, Managing Disruption and Violence	2018-present
National Intelligence University Visiting Lecturer	2009-present

PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Department of Homeland Security Supervisory Special Agent	2011-2018
Office of the Director of National Intelligence Lead Investigator	2007-2011
Naval Criminal Investigative Service Supervisory Special Agent	1997-2007
Department of Labor Senior Investigator	1991-1997

EDUCATION

National Intelligence University MA in Strategic Intelligence Specialization: Foreign Denial and Deception	Class of 2008
Michigan State University BA in Criminal Justice BA in Psychology	Class of 1990

PUBLICATION

“Who Watches the Watchmen? The Conflict Between National Security and Freedom of the Press”, (2011). Center for Strategic Intelligence Research. National Intelligence Press.

CONFERENCES AND INVITED TALKS

2018

National Counterintelligence and Security Center, NCSC Speaker Series
“The Media and National Security”

2015

American Bar Association Standing Committee on Law and National Security
New York County Lawyers Association
“Government Surveillance and Privacy: Have We Reached the Tipping Point”

2014

Kent Connecticut Memorial Library Lecture Series
“The Impact of Media on our Lives”

2013

Associated Press Media Editors National Conference
“Is Journalism a Crime”

2013

Office of the Director of National Intelligence, Intelligence Issues Speaker Series
“Unauthorized Disclosures of Classified Information and the U.S. Media”