

Your achievements were accomplished through perseverance and resiliency during these trying times which is a true testament to your success. May you use the same motivation as future educators, professionals, and researchers to make a difference. Please keep us updated on the many achievements you experience in your professional careers. Can't wait to "see" and "hear" of your future contributions in protecting national security.

Congratulations to the class of 2020!

*Dr. Monique M. Chouraeshkenazi
Chairwoman & Professor, National Security*