

Of course it was a lot of fun to teach at DMGS and I'm beyond thrilled that our graduates are going off to big and bright adventures, but I also want to thank them for teaching me how to be a better teacher and advisor to ambitious and curious professionals. It was a great experience and I wish everyone every success in their lives and careers.

Best,

Yuval Weber

Keenan Institute Associate Professor of Russian and Eurasian Studies