

I want to congratulate the graduating class from DMGS this summer. Throughout the course of your studies, you have shown hard work, dedication and creative thinking that will set you up for success. You have done yourselves and the school proud. You have truly lived up to the school's goal to train new leaders in national security and intelligence. I wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

Best wishes,
Edward Lemon, Ph.D

DMGS-Kennan Institute Fellow